

Dr. med. Walter Mölk

Dr. med. Walter Mölk is a general practitioner from Austria and founder of the Austrian Society of Ayurvedic Medicine and of the first Maharishi AyurVeda health center for Panchakarma in Austria in 1986. In 1996 Dr. Mölk became a member of the international research team at Maharishi Vedic University in Vlodrop, the Netherlands where he had the opportunity to work with Maharishi Mahesh Yogi and Prof. Tony Nader.

He is now director of the International Maharishi AyurVeda Foundation and the Maharishi College of Perfect Health and member of the Board of Directors of MERU (Maharishi European Research University) with seat in Vlodrop, The Netherlands.

Dr Mölk has developed comprehensive curricula for postgraduate training and has over 30 years of experience in teaching Maharishi AyurVeda to health professionals worldwide and has been involved in the organisation of several International Ayurveda Congresses in London, Rio de Janeiro, and in the Netherlands.

Email: wmoelk@maharishi.net

Tel: 00 31 475 538 508